

Wedlake Bell

All-Star performance

Everyone loves a day out at the cricket, and what better way to schmooze the clients than take them too... Lovable legal stalwart Wedlake Bell decided to go one step further and actually get involved in the game by hosting a six-a-side cricket tournament for clients and staff at The Oval earlier this month.

Twelve teams of players fielded by clients such as HSBC, Bank of Ireland and Palmer Capital Partners took part in the all-day event, in which each team played three matches.

The winners were a “Business Recoveries All-Stars” team which included players from KPMG, Kaupthing Singer & Friedlander and GMAC, as well as Martin Arnold, head of Wedlake Bell’s business recoveries team.

Wedlake Bell senior partner David Earl commented: “It’s a privilege to play on such a spectacular ground. It’s fast becoming a much anticipated annual fixture for the firm and clients alike.”

Well, there has to be some perks for the firm after working for the club for over 20 years!

About Wedlake Bell

Wedlake Bell is a 42-partner law firm with offices in central London and Guernsey. Its core practice covers corporate finance, intellectual property and media, employment and pensions, commercial and residential property, investment funds, banking, tax and trusts, construction and litigation. Internationally it is a founder member of Trans European Law Firms Alliance (TELFA) and is associated with the US law firm Fredrikson & Byron.

Wedlake Bell

ENDS

Press enquiries:

David Earl
Wedlake Bell
Tel: 0207 395 3000

July 2008

Published in the Legal Week, 31 July 2008

© Wedlake Bell 2008